RENO-SPARKS

WELCOME TO RENO, AND A DIFFERENT VIEW

As the USBC Women's Championships continues its exciting run in Reno, participants will get to see The Biggest Little City in the World from a new perspective as the tournament moves across town to the Reno-Sparks Convention Center.

This year's tournament marks the third time USBC has built a convention-center venue for the Women's Championships, the first coming in El Paso, Texas, in 2010. More than 30,000 bowlers will compete on this year's 44 specially-constructed lanes that feature the world's largest mobile scoreboard. The venue also has vendor space, offices and many other great features.

For 2013, the tournament again will feature three average-based divisions and an all-handicap format. The divisions are Diamond (averages of 180 and above with handicap based on 220), Ruby (150-179 average, handicap based on 180) and Sapphire (averages 149 and below, handicap based on 150).

There are several more opportunities for competition this year in Reno. The USBC Open Championships is taking place down the road at the National Bowling Stadium, and there are several great side events available to all bowlers, including two events on the new 900 Global Showcase Lanes on the first floor of the NBS. The side events are:

- The 900 Global Two-Game Challenge. The entry fee is $40 for the unique two-game format that will have three average-based divisions with daily payouts and yearlong prizes in every division.

- Who's Got the Look Baker Bonanza presented by 900 Global. The entry fee is $60 for each three-person team. In the yearlong event, teams bowl five Baker games, and there will be a special prize fund for teams consisting of three women.
- Storm Bowlers Journal Championships presented by USBC. A new three-game format, the return of the 199 & Under Handicap Singles and a new Women's Handicap Doubles, are highlights of this longtime event.

Of course, when you are finished on the lanes, Reno has a lot to offer. Make sure to get out and enjoy new restaurants and unique shopping opportunities you might not have explored while bowling at the NBS in downtown Reno last year. Some things to consider:

Fine dining – Reno-Tahoe is home to more than 1,300 restaurants offering quality dining and unique culinary experiences for anyone's taste buds. With many cultural influences, the Reno dining scene offers the chance to be adventurous or enjoy an old favorite with friends.

Enjoy a gallery or museum – The Reno area is home to the Nevada Museum of Art, Nevada's oldest fine arts museum, and the only nationally-accredited facility in the state. Bowlers headed downtown also can take in the National Automobile Museum. The area is loaded with history and tradition, so there's definitely something to peak all interests.

Gaming – Reno is home to dozens of gaming facilities, so bowlers can try their luck at the slots or learn how to play a variety of table games such as blackjack, roulette, craps, poker, baccarat, three-card poker or even Pai Gow poker.

Rock climbing

– New to downtown Reno, the world's largest climbing wall is sure to provide plenty of excitement for adventurous bowlers. There are smaller options for those who are curious but not ready for such an epic ascent. The new feature is located near the historic Reno Arch and offers something for the whole family.

Other exciting possibilities include golf, water sports, snow activities, professional baseball or basketball, festivals, shows, nightlife, antiques and shopping and much more!

Be sure to check the events calendar at VisitRenoTahoe.com to see what is happening during your stay in Reno.

2013 WOMEN'S CHAMPIONSHIPS FACTS

81 days: The tournament will run April 12 through July 1.

Competition: Squad times for the team event at 11 a.m. and 6 p.m. Doubles and singles squads will be held at 7 a.m., 2 p.m. and 9 p.m.

The Beginning: The first Women's Championships was conducted in St. Louis in 1916. It was held in the six-lane Washington Recreation Parlor over two days. Forty bowlers on eight teams competed for a $225 prize fund.

Dedication and participation: The Women's Championships is the world's largest annual participatory sporting event for women, usually attracting around 6,000 five-player teams (30,000 participants).

2013 BRACKETS

BRACKETS PROVIDE EXCITING, FUN CHALLENGES

The USBC Women's Championships offers participants a wide variety of optional brackets. The entry fee is $5 or $10 for most options, so brackets are a great way to add more excitement to your tournament experience and possibly pick up additional prize money.

HOW DO BRACKETS WORK?

A "bracket" is set up using eight randomly-selected bowlers on your squad during team, doubles and/or singles events. You need to bowl a higher game than the bowler you are paired against to advance out of each round. If you win all three matches, you win your bracket.

At the Women's Championships, there are several types of brackets available, including scratch, handicap and senior (age 50 and older) handicap. Handicap for brackets is 75 percent of 220. During the team event only, $10 handicap brackets will be available.

REVERSE BRACKETS

Reverse Brackets work like traditional brackets but instead of using your scores in order (Game 1, Game 2 and Game 3), they are used in reverse order (Game 3, Game 2 and Game 1). The cost for Reverse Brackets is $5. First place pays $25, while second place pays $10. This year, there will be scratch and handicap Reverse Brackets available during team, doubles and singles.

SECOND CHANCE BRACKETS

For $10, the Second Chance Brackets are similar to regular brackets but four of the eight bowlers will have a chance to at least win back their entry fee. There will be scratch and handicap Second Chance Brackets available during all three events.

Bowlers who lose the first game will advance to a losers' bracket. Bowlers who lose again will be eliminated. Bowlers whose first loss comes in the second game will advance to a second sub-bracket. The bowler who loses again will be eliminated.

The person who makes it through the initial bracket undefeated will win $30. Two wins and a loss in the final will earn the bowler $20. A win in the first game, followed by a loss in the second and a win in the third will earn the bowler $15. The winner of the initial losers' bracket will earn $10.

3-6-9 STRIKE JACKPOT

The 3-6-9 Strike Jackpot entry fee is $5 and puts bowlers in the jackpot for all three events (team, doubles and singles) for the one entry fee. The concept is simple: strike in the third, sixth and ninth frame of each game in a series and hit the jackpot. You also can cash for hitting eight of the nine strikes in the series or just for striking in the third, sixth or ninth frame of any single game. Payouts will come after the conclusion of the tournament.

CENTURY DOUBLES

For a $10 entry fee, Century Doubles pairs two bowlers who are a combined 100 years or older on the date of participation. Bowlers may only enter with other competitors on their squad (up to five partners) in this tournament-long event. For example, a bowler who is 35 years old must find a bowler on her squad who is 65 or older in order to enter the event and vice versa. Bowlers will use their combined doubles scores to determine the winner at the end of the tournament's run in July. The handicap for Century Doubles is 75 percent of 220.

Prize money goes to the bowler who signs up the pair, but the two bowlers can enter with each other and share the place in the standings. For example, Bowler A can sign up with Bowler B, and Bowler B can then pay her own $10 to sign up with Bowler A.

SIDE POTS

Side pots reward bowlers who are the best on their squads. These handicap pots pay out for the highest game (each game) among those who are entered. The entry fee for Side Pots during each event is $10. The handicap for this product is 75 percent of 220.

TEAM USA QUALIFYING

Women's Championships bowlers are encouraged to use their nine-game all-events totals as qualifying scores to earn paid entries into the USBC Team USA Trials, an event that gives bowlers a chance to earn a spot on Team USA.

For a $35 entry fee, one out of every 10 entrants earns a paid Team USA Trials entry. In addition to a chance to represent the United States in international bowling competition through the optional qualifying program, USBC donates $1 from each all-events entry fee to support the Team USA program. Bowlers interested in a chance to qualify for the Team USA Trials can register when they sign up for brackets before team event.

SENIOR AND SUPER SENIOR TOURNAMENT OF THE AMERICAS QUALIFYING

Earn the chance to represent the United States at the 2013 Lee Evans Tournament of the Americas, scheduled for July 28-Aug. 3, 2013, at Strikers Lanes in Sunrise, Fla.

The top two finishers in each category (based on their nine-game all-events totals) automatically will earn spots on the team that will represent the U.S. in this international competition. The cost for this will be $35. Team USA will pay for the TOA entry, hotel and uniform but competitors will be responsible for their own travel and meal expenses.

Senior entrants must be at least 45 years of age and Super Senior entrants must be at least 55 years of age before the first day of competition at the 2013 Tournament of the Americas. If a bowler age 55 or older would like to sign up in both divisions, she can do so by paying both entry fees. Should she qualify in both, she will choose which division to compete in at the TOA. Women only will be eligible to qualify through the 2013 USBC Women's Championships.

GEM SERIES

Introduced in 2010, this product is designed specifically so bowlers will face only bowlers in their own division. The cost will be $10 per bracket, and bowlers may enter up to 20.

This product will be set up like a traditional eight-person bracket, but instead of using individual games, winners each round will be determined by their three-game series in team, doubles and singles. This new format makes things a little more exciting and gives you a chance to bounce back from a bad game.

Another unique aspect of this product is that it will be tournament-long. All bowlers will be randomly placed into the brackets at the conclusion of the 2013 Women's Championships, and winners will be determined. The winner of each bracket will receive $50, while the runner-up receives $20.

Handicap for the Gem Series will be 100 percent of 450 for Sapphire Division bowlers, 100 percent of 540 for those in the Ruby Division and 100 percent of 660 for Diamond Division bowlers.

OPTIONAL SCRATCH BONUS

Since the Women's Championships uses an all-handicap format, this optional scratch prize fund is a special bonus for ultra-competitive bowlers to earn additional prize money.

Open to all tournament competitors, the cost is $20 per bowler per event, and bowlers can enter one, two or all three events. The team event scratch bonus will be $100 total, and the doubles scratch bonus will be $40 total. Singles and all-events will be $20 and the responsibility of the individual.

This yearlong product will feature a prize-fund-style payout after the conclusion of the tournament. The prize ratio is 1:10. Please note this product is completely unrelated to the scratch portion of the USBC Women's Championships that crowns overall tournament champions.

BREAKTHROUGH PERFORMANCE NETS BOOMERSHINE THREE TITLES

At Lindsay Boomershine's wedding last July, some guests were on their phones checking the USBC Women's Championships leaderboards on BOWL.com. Boomershine had a big day on the lanes in late June and her friends eagerly were awaiting the final results.

With the conclusion of the 2012 Women's Championships in Reno, Nev., Boomershine's name was atop the leaderboards in three categories.

"That was such an amazing day, and the whole story really is hilarious," Boomershine said. "I knew I wanted to marry Hank; I was more nervous about the tournament and the titles. There were a few people at the wedding keeping an eye on it, and it was a huge relief when the tournament ended."

With victories in Scratch Doubles and Scratch All-Events, and a co-championship in Diamond Doubles, Boomershine became the sixth bowler in history, and first since 1986, to win three events in the same year. The 27-year-old right-hander also finished second in Diamond All-Events, just seven pins shy of becoming the first bowler with four titles in one tournament.

"I work so hard, and I just love the sport of bowling," said Boomershine. "I really wish we still had the (Professional Women's Bowling Association) Tour. But, since we don't get the chance to bowl week in and week out, it's makes days like I had last year in Reno even more special."

Boomershine, the NCAA Collegiate Bowler of the Year during the 2005-06 season while at Nebraska, had a 784 series in doubles, 735 in singles and 707 in team at the National Bowling Stadium. Her scratch all-events total of 2,226 was the third-highest in 93 years of tournament history. Jodi Woessner of Oregon, Ohio, set the all-events record with 2,330 at the 2010 USBC Women's Championships in El Paso, Texas.

Teaming with two-time Junior Team USA member and 2011 USBC Queens runner-up Elysia Current of Ephrata, Pa. (696), Boomershine won Scratch Doubles with a 1,480 total. Since the duo's combined entering average exceeded 440, Boomershine and Current did not receive any handicap but their effort was enough to earn a share of the top spot in the Diamond Division. Corina Grasso of Fort Collins, Colo., and Megan Hill of Eastlake, Ohio, who shot 769 and 606, respectively, and received an additional 35 pins of handicap per game, also finished with a 1,480 total.

A lot of Boomershine's drive and passion for bowling are courtesy of her uncle, Professional Bowlers Association Hall of Famer Tom Baker, who owns 10 PBA Tour titles and nine PBA50 Tour (formerly PBA Senior Tour) victories. Now that she's older and married, she's able to lean on her husband for information and support, whether it's on the lanes or on the technical side of the sport.

Winning has inspired Boomershine to continue to work hard at her game and strive to win the limited top events available for women bowlers. She has challenged herself to make a lasting impact on the sport in one way or another.

"Bowling is my passion," Boomershine said. "Bowling that well and winning definitely inspired me to want to work even harder, accomplish more and do everything I can to make the sport better."

Boomershine, a Brigham City, Utah, resident, and Current will return to defend their Women's Championships title on May 24-25.

"Last year was an amazing experience, and I was very fortunate to be able to win three titles," Boomershine said. "When we go back this year, I can only make the best shots I can. I can't add pressure to myself just because we did well last year."

HIGH ROLLERS IN 2012

Each edition of the USBC Women's Championships is filled with milestones and memorable moments. Sometimes, familiar faces find their way back into the spotlight, but the unique format of the tournament also allows newcomers to shine on bowling's biggest stage for women.

The 2012 Women's Championships at the National Bowling Stadium in Reno, Nev., provided a little bit of everything, from dramatic finishes to dominating performances.

Big finish

Pam Pancoast of Lomita, Calif., rolled one of four perfect games at the 2012 USBC Women's Championships and her 300 game to finish singles gave the 51-year-old right-hander the 2012 Scratch Singles title by a single pin.

She averaged 240 during team and doubles, and then struck on 27 of her last 28 shots in singles to finish with games of 213, 266 and 300. Her 779 series allowed her to move one pin ahead of Tammy Lewis of San Jose, Calif.

Pancoast added 730 in team and 710 in doubles for a 2,219 all-events total, the fourth-highest all-events score in tournament history, which was good enough for a second-place finish in Scratch All-Events.

Betty Brooks of Lakewood, Calif., Caryn Evitts of Waukegan, Ill., and Kristin Warzinski of Fort Worth, Texas, also rolled perfect games at the 2012 Women's Championships, bringing the all-time total to 19. There also were three 299s, two 298s and two 297s.

Although Evitts' 300 didn't earn her a title, it did land her and Melanie DeCarlo of Peru, Ill., in the record books by tying the highest doubles game in tournament history (558). They finished seventh in Scratch Doubles with 1,396 and 12th in Diamond Doubles with 1,435.

Back-to-back titles

Joey Biondo of Carpentersville, Ill., clearly didn't feel any pressure as she tried to lead her team to consecutive Diamond Team titles.

The 40-year-old right-hander opened her 2012 tournament campaign with the 12th 299 game in tournament history, and although Eagles Edge Pro Shop of Des Plaines, Ill., didn't repeat, the effort catapulted Biondo to individual success as the 2012 Diamond All-Events champion.

The former Team USA member rolled scratch scores of 751 in team, 723 in singles and 660 in doubles for a 2,134 all-events total. An additional 15 pins of handicap per game helped her to the 2,269 final tally and her second Women's Championships title in as many years.

A short wait

The members of Coefficient of Friction of Palo Alto, Calif., didn't have to wait long to see if they had claimed the Scratch Team title.

Led by Brittany Hillman's 720 series, Coefficient of Friction rolled games of 1,160, 1,053 and 1,089 for a 3,302 total to overtake Together Once Again of Keller, Texas, with just a week left in the tournament.

Hillman was joined by Mandy Green (655), Bowling Writers Association of America board member Jackie Wyckoff (654), Terri Stynes (639) and Kimberly Power (634).

Mini milestone

Mini Tvaska of St. Petersburg, Fla., has been a regular at the USBC Women's Championships since her debut at the 1947 event in Grand Rapids, Mich.

In 2012, at age 94, she extended her participation record with her 66th consecutive appearance on the championship lanes. She is scheduled to make her 67th tournament appearance on May 21 at 11 a.m.

The list of women in pursuit of Tvaska also grew as seven bowlers reached the 50-year milestone. In 2013, Jacquelyn Baker Nelson will be the only bowler to join the elite 50-Year Club.

Dawn of a new era

Format changes on tap for USBC Women's Championships in 2014

When the USBC Championships returns to Reno, Nev., in 2014, there will be new divisions and an exciting new format to complement more than 90 years of history and tradition.

Highlights include a change to four-player teams, from the traditional five, and a return to an all-scratch format. Teams will be divided into four divisions based on combined averages, and there will be six average-based divisions for doubles, singles and all-events.

The 2014 event will be held on 44 specially-constructed lanes inside the Reno-Sparks Convention Center. A look at the new divisions for the 2014 Women's Championships:

TEAM DIVISIONS

(Based on the combined average of all four bowlers):

- Diamond (725 and above)
- Ruby (650-724)
- Emerald (575-649)
- Sapphire (574 and below)

DOUBLES AND SINGLES/ALL-EVENTS DIVISIONS

(Doubles based on the combined average of the two bowlers):

DIVISION	DOUBLES	SINGLES/ALL-EVENTS
1	380 and above	190 and above
2	350-379	175-189
3	320-349	160-174
4	290-319	145-159
5	260-289	130-144
6	259 and below	129 and below

Along with the format changes, the Women's Championships will have a new price structure in 2014. The entry fee for a bowler to compete in team, doubles, singles and all-events will be $140 ($44 per event and an optional $8 for all-events).

The total for a four-player team will be $560, and that includes all processing fees if the team captain enters online. Entering by mail, fax or phone will require an additional $10 processing fee per team and $10 for each doubles/singles set.

Spots are available on a first-come, first-serve basis, and dates and times can be locked in as soon as a full payment is made.

Next year also will mark the return of the USBC Queens and Senior Queens to Reno. The 2014 USBC Queens and Senior Queens will be held at the National Bowling Stadium from June 27-July 3, 2014.

Nelson reaches 50 years of participation

When Jacquelyn Baker Nelson of Siler City, N.C., began bowling during the 1960s, she found a world of leagues and tournaments that took her to new locales and provided rewarding camaraderie.

"It was a way to establish our personal time and get away from home, our jobs and the kids for girls' weekends," said Nelson, a 73-year-old right-hander. "And we had a strict rule - no husbands allowed. We developed another rule, too. What happened in bowling, stayed in bowling."

Nelson celebrates 50 years of participation at the Women's Championships this year in Reno, her eighth trip to the city. She enjoys the sights and new discoveries, and says competing in the tournament is a great way to meet people, as well as renew old acquaintances.

"My earliest time in the sport was when I was coerced to attend the conventions as a delegate and serve as a local association president," Nelson said. "That led to my interest in nationals, beginning with the competition in Memphis in 1963."

For one brief day in Baltimore during the 1981 tournament, Nelson's team held the lead in the Women's Championships. Recalling that fleeting moment keeps her committed to bowling at the national level.

Though many former competitors and teammates can't bowl anymore, the lady from North Carolina who planned her family births around tournaments can't stay away.

When Nelson isn't bowling, she spends many hours watching her second favorite sport, basketball. An avid North Carolina Tar Heels fan, Nelson, who retired from UNC after 37½ years, has held season tickets since 1959.

THE BATTLE BEGINS ON TWO FRONTS...

LEAGUE COMPETITION

The 900 Global War Eagle leaves no pins standing. Built on the dynasty of the Eagle line, the War Eagle's increased RG and modified differential make this ball store merciless amounts of energy. This pin-hungry predator will go longer and strike HARDER than ever before.
